AUSTRALIAN AND NEW ZEALAND
ARMY CORPS.

COMMEMORATION SERVICE

APRIL 25th, 1916

(Being the First Anniversary of the Landing at Gallipoli).

Order of Service.

HYMN.

Full Unison. For all the Saints who from their labours rest,
Who Thee by faith before the world confess'd,
Thy Name, O Jesu, be for ever blest.
Alleluia !

Full Harmony. Thou wast their Rock, their Fortress, and their Might ;
Thou, Lord, their Captain in the well-fought fight ;
Thou in the darkness drest their one true Light.
Alleluia !

Men in Unison. O may Thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold,
Fight as the Saints who nobly fought of old,
And win, with them, the victor's crown of gold.
Alleluia !

Harmony. O blest communion ! fellowship Divine !
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine ;
Yet all are one in Thee, for all are Thine.
Alleluia !

Men in Unison. And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
Steals on the ear the distant triumph-song,
And hearts are brave again, and arms are strong.
Alleluia !

Trebles in Unison. The golden evening brightens in the west ;
Soon, soon to faithful warriors comes their rest ;
Sweet is the calm of Paradise the blest.
Alleluia !

Harmony Full. But lo ! there breaks a yet more glorious day ;
The Saints triumphant rise in bright array :
The King of glory passes on His way.

Alleluia !

Full Harmony. From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
Singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Alleluia ! Amen.

W. Walsham How.

Then shall the Congregation kneel, and the Precentor shall say,
Let us pray.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Our Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, in earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation ; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Almighty God, who through Thine only-begotten Son Jesus Christ hast overcome death, and opened unto us the gate of everlasting life ; We humbly beseech Thee, that as by Thy special grace preventing us Thou dost put into our minds good desires, so by Thy continual help we may bring the same to good effect ;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end.
Amen.

Almighty and everlasting God, Who, of Thy tender love towards mankind, hast sent Thy Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ, to take upon Him our flesh, and to suffer death upon the cross,
that all mankind should follow the example of His great humility ;
Mercifully grant that we may both follow the example of His patience, and also be made partakers of His resurrection ; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall follow the Anthem, during which the Congregation will stand.

Ascribe unto the Lord, O ye kindreds of the people, ascribe unto the Lord worship and power. Ascribe unto the Lord the honour due unto His Name. Let the whole earth stand in awe of Him. Tell it out among the heathen that the Lord is King, and that He shall judge the people righteously. O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness. Sing to the Lord, and praise His Name. As for our God, He is in Heaven: He hath done whatsoever pleased Him. The Lord hath been mindful of us, and He shall bless us: He shall bless the house of Israel, He shall bless the house of Aaron. He shall bless them that fear the Lord, both small and great. Ye are the blessed of the Lord, you and your children. Ye are the blessed of the Lord, Who made heaven and earth.

Wesley.

Then shall the Congregation be seated, and the Dean shall say as follows:

Let us now unite in praise and thanksgiving for those our brothers who died at Gallipoli for their King and Empire, in the high cause of Freedom and Honour. More especially do we commemorate the names of the following troops who took part in the landing:—

AUSTRALIAN: 1st—8th Brigades of Infantry;
1st—16th Regiments of Light Horse;
1st—3rd Brigades of Artillery;
with Engineers, Army Service, Medical,
Veterinary, Ordnance, Naval Bridging, Corps.

NEW ZEALAND: Divisional and Infantry Brigade Headquarters;
The Auckland, Wellington, Canterbury, Otago
Battalions;
with Field Artillery, Engineers, Medical, Army Service, Corps.

All these fought most valiantly. Their deeds will be remembered evermore. Their memorial is already inscribed in men's hearts. In future ages the sons of our Empire will seek to emulate the imperishable renown of their daring and bravery. We are resolved that, by God's gracious favour, our brothers shall not have laid down their lives in vain.

"Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."

"The eternal God is thy dwelling-place, and underneath are the everlasting arms."

"Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on Thee, because he trusteth in Thee."

Then shall be sung by all standing.

Praise God, from Whom all blessings flow,
Praise Him, all creatures here below,
Praise Him above, Angelic host,
Praise FATHER, SON, and HOLY GHOST. Amen.

Then shall the Dean say these prayers, all devoutly kneeling,

Let us pray.

O Eternal Father, we humbly draw nigh to Thee amid the memorials of Great Britain's most illustrious dead, and in this Church where our Kings and Queens are crowned. We dedicate to Thy great glory the memory of our dear Brothers departed: We praise Thy Holy Name for the gift of their matchless courage: Crown, we beseech Thee, with Thy loving mercy the offering of their brave lives: Grant unto them Thy eternal Peace and the blessing of Thy perfect comfort unto all that mourn: We ask it in the Name of Him who died and rose again for us all, Thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Grant, O Lord, that we, being strengthened by Thy grace for the work of completing that which remains over of our dear brothers' task, may ever serve Thee truly in the Faith of Him who is our Resurrection and our Life, and may fight man-fully unto our lives' end in the defence of the heritage of our liberty, and for the triumph of a righteous cause, through the same, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, as we pray unto Thee for future mercies, so we now render unto Thee our thanksgivings for those we have already received : for the unity of the Empire, the free-will offering of her sons and daughters, the courage and loyalty of our soldiers and sailors, the affection and devotion between the Dominions Overseas and the Mother country, the patient and self-denying earnestness of our people. And we beseech Thee that we and all Thy servants who are united with us in comradeship and alliance may with thankful hearts serve Thee in holiness and pureness of living ; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall be sung by all standing.

THE RECESSIONAL.

God of our fathers, known of old—
 Lord of our far-flung battle-line—
 Beneath whose awful Hand we hold
 Dominion over palm and pine—
 Lord God of Hosts be with us yet,
 Lest we forget, lest we forget!

The tumult and the shouting dies—
 The captains and the kings depart—
 Still stands Thine ancient sacrifice,
 An humble and a contrite heart.
 Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
 Lest we forget, lest we forget!

Far-called our navies melt away—
 On dune and headland sinks the fire—
 Lo, all our pomp of yesterday
 Is one with Nineveh and Tyre!
 Judge of the Nations, spare us yet,
 Lest we forget, lest we forget!

If, drunk with sight of power, we loose
Wild tongues that have not Thee in awe—
Such boasting as the Gentiles use
Or lesser breeds without the Law—
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget, lest we forget!

For heathen heart that puts her trust
In reeking tube and iron shard—
All valiant dust that builds on dust,
And guarding calls not Thee to guard—
For frantic boast and foolish word,
Thy Mercy on Thy People, Lord! Amen.
